Womelsdorf- Do you have a special talent? Can you sing? Dance? Tell a joke? On December 19, 2008 in New Hope, Pennsylvania, you will have the chance to showcase your talents and help bring a joyous Christmas to the residents of one of the oldest children's homes in Pennsylvania, Bethany Children's Home.

New Hope Charities will be hosting a talent competition at the New Hope Eagle Fire Company in the style of the popular 70's game show, "The Gong Show". Prizes will be awarded for the act that can make it through the evening without getting "gonged" off the stage.

Event promoter, Frank Johnson, understands how important it is to support kids during the Christmas season. Frank served as a board member for St. Vincent Children's Home in Wheeling , West Virginia. " Christmas is the time to reflect on those that have not had the advantages we have had." Frank explained as his reason for helping to create this unique event. " This event is a fun way to spend the evening and give back to a wonderful children's home like Bethany."

Michael " Pumpkin" Gardner will be the celebrity MC for the evening. Judging the event will be Ricky Crosby of Karla's restaurant, Larry Keller, Mayor of New Hope, and Ellen Bollenbacher, owner of The Landing Restaurant.

Date: December, 19 2008

Time: 7:30

Place: Eagle Fire Company
46 North Sungan Road
New Hope, PA, 18938

Cost: $10 per ticket.

Proceeds to benefit Bethany Children's Home, Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania.

Event promoter, Frank Johnson of New Hope Pennsylvania, is looking for talented and not-so talented acts to participate in the evenings event. All performers welcome. Serious, funny, musical, silly. Please contact him at 1-732-407-1567 if you are interested in being an act in the evenings program or for ticket information.
